

Sandi Hengle, the Franklin County Schools Homeless Liaison, has started an outreach program in conjunction with the Panhandle Area Educational Consortium Migrant Education Program to assist Hispanic families with students who are identified as homeless. Here are pictures from the meeting with the members of PAEC and members of the Franklin County Hispanic population who are assisting. If you know of any students who may benefit from the program call Sandi Hengle (850) 323-0982