PRESS RELEASE: FEBRUARY 2, 2018

To: Franklin County School District

Superintendent Moses is happy to announce the recent partnership with Lively Technical Center as the dual enrollment provider for Career and Technical courses. "We are working together to provide more career and vocational opportunities to the students of Franklin County," she stated.

Lively will work with the Franklin County School Board to set up articulation agreements in order to offer PSAV (Post-Secondary Adult Vocational) programs. This partnership will work to build strong CTE programs to meet the workforce demands here in Franklin County.
